

SENATE RESOLUTION 128
By Crutchfield

A RESOLUTION to confirm the appointment of Dr. Katherine H. Greenberg to the Board of Trustees of the University of Tennessee.

WHEREAS, Tennessee Code Annotated Section 49-9-202, provides for the creation of the Board of Trustees of the University of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, a vacancy occurred on the Board of Trustees of the University of Tennessee on January 21, 2004;

WHEREAS, Tennessee Code Annotated Section 49-9-204, provides that in all cases of vacancies on the Board of Trustees, the Governor shall appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term; and

WHEREAS, Governor Phil Bredesen has recently appointed Dr. Katherine H. Greenberg of Knoxville, Tennessee, to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the University of Tennessee; Dr. Greenberg will serve during a term that will expire on June 30, 2004; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Greenberg earned a bachelors degree in elementary education from Texas Technological University, and masters and doctorate degrees in special education from Peabody College at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, and has served as an elementary and special-education teacher; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Greenberg joined the University of Tennessee faculty in 1980, where she is a professor and coordinator in the Educational Psychology and Counseling Department at the Knoxville campus of the University of Tennessee, and teaches classes on cognitive education, mediated learning, change and the needs of underachieving and nontraditional learners; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Greenberg has been an active leader of the faculty at the University of Tennessee, and served as President of the University of Tennessee Faculty Senate from 2001-2002, was a member of a task force to review University of Tennessee hiring practices, and was part of the University of Tennessee Academic Programs and Planning Committee, Advancement and Outreach Council, and Faculty and Student Council; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Greenberg has received numerous professional honors, including the position of Fulbright Research Scholar at the Hadassah-WIZO Canada Research Institute in Israel , which culminated in the development of the Cognitive Enrichment Advantage approach to teaching, which was chosen as one of 12 national models for the United States Department of Education's "Follow Through Program"; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Greenberg's educational and professional experience would be a tremendous asset to the Board of Trustees of the University of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-9-202, provides that all members appointed to the University of Tennessee Board of Trustees by the Governor shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That the Senate hereby confirms the appointment of Dr. Katherine H. Greenberg, of Knoxville, Tennessee, to the remainder of a one (1) year term on the Board of Trustees of the University of Tennessee, such term to expire on June 30, 2004.
